

We just completed the Midwest Mini Rally at Shipshewana, IN before the busy Memorial Weekend. We had a wonderful time with the 5 couples who attended the rally. Of course we shared our meals together, most of them in the campground but we did go to the Blue Gate Restaurant which fixes Amish style meals—that is why we went at lunch. We also attended the Flee Market —some of us went on Wednesday and some on Thursday. As far as I'm concerned the best part of the Flea Market is the homemade ice cream. One afternoon we went to the RV Hall of Fame in Elkhart, IN. If you have not been there it is a great Museum and everyone enjoyed the one of a kind RV Models. Some of the group stayed longer and went to Menno-Hof to learn more about the Amish-Mennonite story. It was enjoyable to take a drive through the country and see the Amish working in the fields with their workhorses. We hope that some of you that live out west would come join us in the Midwest for a Mini-Rally some year.
